

the proceeds of sale, with all fines imposed and collected, after paying the costs of the seizure, condemnation and sale, shall be divided, one-fourth to the officer making the arrest and seizure, one-fourth to those aiding in making the arrest and seizure, and the remaining one-half to the board of school commissioners of Kent and Queen Anne's counties, for the use of the schools of said counties.

1872, ch. 313.

117. Any party adjudged guilty of the violation of the provisions of said sections 110, 111 or 112, who feels himself aggrieved thereby, shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court for said counties, respectively, as in other cases of appeal from decisions of justices of the peace.

1886, ch. 138. 1888, ch. 151.

118. It shall not be lawful for any person to take, capture or destroy fish in the waters of Chester river, or its tributaries, in the counties of Kent or Queen Anne's, and Eastern bay and its tributaries, within the jurisdictional limits of Queen Anne's county, by seines, drag-nets, set-nets, fish-baskets, fish-pots, weirs, pound-nets, fykes, or any other means or contrivance whatsoever, which is now known or used in the capturing or destroying fish, or which may hereafter be invented for that purpose, from the twentieth day of May to the first day of August, except with hook and line; provided, however, that seines or nets may be used for the taking of taylor and mackerel fish; provided, the meshes of such nets or seines are, in the bar, not less than one and seven-eighth inches, or, in the mesh, not less than three and three-quarter inches; and provided, however, that eels may be taken or captured at any time during the year, and by any contrivance whatsoever, suitable for the purpose.

Ibid.

119. It shall not be lawful for any person who uses stakes or poles in setting nets of whatever class or description, in the waters mentioned in the preceding section, to leave such stakes or poles in the waters where they were used, but shall remove, or have removed, such stakes or poles from the waters where they were used, on or before the twentieth day of May in each year; nor shall they again be put down in said waters prior to the first day of August following.
